DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 116-131 are allowed.

Claim 83 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 9,10,12,16-19,23,24,26,28,37-41,45,50,53-55,57,82,84,86,90,92,96,99,100,102,107,110,111,114 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Information Disclosure Statement

IDS filed 5/15/04, 6/28/04, 7/08/04, 10/08/04, 2/14/05 and 6/17/05 have been considered.

Specification

The lengthy specification has not been checked to the extent necessary to determine the presence of all possible minor errors. Applicant's cooperation is requested in correcting any errors of which applicant may become aware in the specification.

Applicant should note the disposition of the parent application in the specification.

Election/Restrictions

Claims 60-80,132-142 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 8/26/05.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claim 83 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. There is no proper antecedent basis for 'the blender' in line 2.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-8,11,13-15,20-22,25,27,29-36,42-44,46-49,51,52,56,58,59,81,85,87-89,91,93-95,97,98,101,103-106,108,109,112,113,115 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-26 of copending Application No. 10/750901. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the differences found therein would have been either obvious design choices or elements well known in the art. For example, the uses of cyclones, flow rate monitors, and valves to regulate airflow are well known in the mechanical arts and of no patentable merit. Providing second cyclones etc. would have been obvious to one skilled in the art once the initial use of the cyclone, etc. was known. Also, the treatment of a single material or plurality of materials simultaneously would have been obvious based on the desired end product.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
